

Jill Vaysman, Director and Trainer

Jill Vaysman is a director and trainer with Coxe Curry & Associates. Her consulting experience includes annual funds, feasibility studies, and capital campaigns. Currently, she is working with The Adaptive Learning Center, Chattahoochee Nature Center, Greater Atlanta Christian School, The Museum of Contemporary Art of Georgia, and Project Healthy Grandparents. In addition to her client work, Jill is responsible for onboarding and training Coxe Curry's client services team.

Prior to joining the firm in 2007, Jill was the coordinator of volunteer services with MY HOUSE, a transitional home for infants and children, affiliated with Emory University.

While there, she managed the volunteer program, assisted in prospect cultivation and donor recognition, and coordinated special events.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Jill moved to Atlanta in 2001 after graduating Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Georgia with a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology. Jill volunteers at Chamblee Middle School, Kittredge Magnet School, and Druid Hills Youth Sports. She is married to Lev Vaysman, a director of client management with Guidewire Software, and they have two children.
