

Lisa Maulding, Vice President and Managing Director

Lisa Maulding is vice president and managing director with Coxe Curry & Associates and is charged with helping lead the strategic direction and execution of the firm's short-term and long-term goals. Her consulting experience includes internal development assessments, feasibility studies, capital campaigns, and annual funds. Current and recent clients include Atlanta Ronald McDonald House Charities, Bobby Dodd Institute, Open Hand, and Wellspring Living, among others.

Prior to her association with Coxe Curry, Lisa served as the chief development officer for Pace Academy from 1995 to 2001. In this role, she managed a staff of seven responsible for alumni relations, public relations, communications, annual giving, capital giving, planned giving, and special events. In her six years at Pace, Lisa and her staff increased the annual fund from $220,000 to over $950,000. In addition, she helped organize and implement a $20 million capital campaign that achieved the school's first seven-figure gift, 95% parent participation, and 100% faculty/staff and board participation.

From 1989 to 1995, Lisa consulted with two Atlanta fundraising consulting firms that worked throughout the southeast, performing development assessments, feasibility studies, and capital and annual campaigns. Previous clients include Bermuda High School for Girls (Bermuda), Gwinnett County Boys & Girls Club (Georgia), Montgomery Academy (Alabama), Ransom Everglades (Florida), The Schenck School (Georgia), and The Webb School (Tennessee).

A community volunteer, Lisa is a former community placement chair for the Junior League of Atlanta and serves on several committees at her church, St. Jude the Apostle. Lisa is also on the board of Reach for Excellence, an academic and leadership enrichment program for underserved students, hosted at Marist School. She is a member of Atlanta Kiwanis.

A native of Southern Illinois, Lisa moved to Atlanta in 1987. She attended the University of Georgia and graduated from Georgia State University with a B.A. in Marketing. Lisa and her husband, Dale, have two adult sons.

lmaulding@coxecurry.com